

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF ARKANSAS
HARRISON DIVISION

GALEN W. HUTCHESON

PLAINTIFF

v.

Civil No. 04-3061

JO ANNE B. BARNHART, Commissioner, Social Security Administration

DEFENDANT

ORDER

Plaintiff Galen W. Hutcheson appealed the Commissioner's denial of benefits to this court. On September 22, 2005, judgment was entered reversing the decision of the Administrative Law Judge and remanding plaintiff's case to the Commissioner pursuant to sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g).

On November 23, 2005, plaintiff moved for approval of attorney's fees and costs under 28 U.S.C. § 2412, the Equal Access to Justice Act (EAJA), in the amount of $1,845.20, representing 14.65 hours of service at the rate of $125.00 per hour and $13.95 in expenses. Defendant has filed a response, expressing no objection to this award.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(1)(A), the court must award attorney's fees to a prevailing social security claimant unless the Commissioner's position in denying benefits was substantially justified. The burden is on the Commissioner to show substantial justification for the government's denial of benefits. Jackson v. Bowen, 807 F.2d 127, 128 (8th Cir. 1986). After reviewing the file, we find plaintiff is a prevailing party in this matter. Under Shalala v. Schaefer, 509 U.S. 292, 302, 113 S.Ct. 2625, 125 L.Ed.2d 239 (1993), a social security claimant who obtains a sentence-four judgment reversing the Commissioner's denial of benefits and remanding the case for further proceedings is a prevailing party.

Plaintiff requests attorney's fees under EAJA at an hourly rate of $125.00. In the past, the statutory hourly rate under EAJA was $75.00 which could be upwardly adjusted to account for an increase in the cost of living since October 1, 1981, the effective date of EAJA as originally enacted, or a special factor such as the limited availability of qualified attorneys. Kelly v. Bowen, 862 F.2d 1333, 1336 (8th Cir. 1988); 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(2)(A). The Contract with America Advancement Act of 1996, passed on March 29, 1996, amended EAJA and increased the statutory ceiling for EAJA fee awards from $75 to $125 per hour. See Public Law 104-121, § 232(b)(1). The $125.00 rate applies to civil actions filed on or after the enactment date. Id. § 233. Consequently, we find that plaintiff's counsel is entitled to compensation at an hourly rate of $125.00.

CONCLUSION

Based on the above, we hereby award an attorney's fee under EAJA of $1,845.20, representing 14.65 hours at a rate of $125.00 per hour and $13.95 in expenses. This amount should be paid in addition to, and not out of, plaintiff's past due benefits.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 10th day of March 2006.
